

Bottom Fed Burner Design

With its revolutionary designed bottom fed burner, MESys boilers never shut down for ash removal or cleaning.

The burner minimizes the number of cold starts, eliminates emptying ash from the burn chamber for a restart, and results in no by-product build up in the system. After a period of low demand, the bottom fed design often requires only the application of air in order to restart.

Cheaper. Cleaner. Closer.

MaineEnergySystems.com | (207) 824-NRGY (6749)